Mike:
Is there a chance you can make a postcard size advertisement for our bowling event before this week end? I am told that the ad should be before months end so it can be placed in the monthly news letter. Cathy or Peter Perkins needs to review/approve before the ad can be placed in the newsletter.

Hi Walt,
I found the name of the 2 potential restaurants we discussed this morning for the bowling night. However, any restaurant you choose will be great.
Kabul Afghan Cuisine, 135 El Camino, San Carlos, 650 594-2840
Yans Garden 885 Laurel, San Carlos 650 593-9777
We also discussed marketing. Here is what generally happens.
•Peter Perkins will list the activity in his monthly(early part of month)newsletter,
•Lisa Chan(or your son)can do a postcard on the event & list on PCC website and
•Peter and or Lisa will get info to the 4 adult classes.
I am guessing we'll get between 20-30 people.
Cathy

Hey Dad,

I was only able to work on this today. Here's my first go at it. Is it too dynamic? Should it be more toned down?

For a flyer/postcard, the text you gave me was a bit too wordy. Needs to just be the basic info. So I edited it down.

Note that the images are watermarked stock images for getting an idea of the design. If you like them, I'll go ahead and download the full versions to use. So this is only for your review, not to present to anyone else yet. If you don't like it, I'll come up with something else. But wanted to get it over to you before spending time on another one.

I like it. GREAT JOB!!!

I was wondering instead of "+PLUS" the name "BRIDGES MINISTRY" may go better for the powers to be. They are trying to get away from the stigma of the +name. They want to bridge us older people with the younger groups if we can. (Some people think the + refers to overweight people).

Also, would email addresses be better than phone #s? I personally don't want to be bombarded with calls; written confirmation from interested person would be better I think.

Here is the PDF with changes. I had to recreate the entire layout using the new photos, but somehow the colors changed. I don't like the way it ended up as much as the preview I sent you earlier. But honestly I don't have time to try again today. If you need it changed, I'll have to do it next week. But you need to submit today, so here is what you can use.
